Newest Fashions, Dramatic, Musical and Sartorial Theater Features

"The Red Widow," "Seven Keys to Baldpate," "Naughty Marietta," "The Fashion Show of 1915," "The Opium Pipe," and Colored Pictures of Fighting Forces on Week's Program.

One of the most varied programs of entertainment of the season is to be presented theatergoers this week. The production of "The Red Widow" will bring a new Aborn company to the National to interpret a purely American type of musical comedy, while the Columbia Musical Stock Company is to present in "Naughty Marietta" a sample of American light opera, built upon the approved light opera lines in Victor Herbert's most melodious style. The kinemacolor war pictures enter upon their second week at the Belasco.

"The Seven Keys to Baldpate," which the Poli Players present, is a type of drama that is new to the present generation of theatergoers in its combination of pure melodrama and farce, and "The Opium Pipe" will give an allegorical setting to a propaganda play directed against a great modern evil. The fashion show, which is the feature of the Keith vaudewille bill, is a distinctly new type of theatrical entertainment, designed to give an idea of the styles. The programs of the smaller vaudeville and motion picture houses are unusually ambitious.

NATIONAL.

The third week of the Aborn season of musical comedy and comic opera at the

New National Theater will present "The Red Widow," the Cohan & Harris success, which helped maintain the popularity of Raymond Hitchcock. It is a typical modern musical comedy, in which the apparently serious episodes are presented with farcical turn. Channing Poliock, former dramatic editor of The Times, and Rennold Wolf.

Channing Pollock, former dramatic editor of The Times, and Rennoid Wolf, the humorist and newspaper writer, collaborated in the book and lyrics. The scenes are laid in London and St. Petersburg, and the story concerns the efforts of Anna Varvara, a daring Russian Nihilist, known as "The Red Widow," to elude the authorities of her country in returning to St. Petersburg. She learns that an eccentric American millionaire, Col. Cicero Hannibal Butts, is about to go from London to the Russian capital, and that he has an extra passport. She induces him to allow her to enter the city with him. The deception is found out by the authorities; the anarchists turn against him and make dire threats; and his domineering wife appears upon the scene.

Robinson Newbold comes to Washington in the role of Colonel Butts with the same droll style peculiar to Raymond Hitchcock, its originator. Lillian Concord will appear as Anna Varvara. The cast will also include Dixis Blair, Inez Bauer, William Pruette, Jr., Neison Riley, Joseph Carter, Herbert Hall, and Theodore Martin.

"THE OPIUM PIPE."

The American dancer, Paul Swan.

will appear as an addition to the cast of "The Opium Pipe," by Mrs. Christian

BELASCO. Today two exhibitions will be given at the Belasco Theater of the Natural Color Motion Pictures, "With the Fighting Forces of Europe," at $:30 and 8:80.

With the exception of tomorrow evening,

when the Kinemacolor management step and 8:30.

This week offers the last chance of seeing wonderful pictures, for next Sunday they will leave for San Francisco for exhibition in the Panama Pacific for exhibition in the Panama Pacific Exposition.

These pictures are not of the forces fighting, but "With the frighting Forces" and of them Gen. Hugh Scott, chief of the United States Army, said: 'It is better to see 'With the Fighting Forces' than to visit the battle fields of Europe."

GAYETY.

Last night's performance marked the retirement from active service after more than half a century of managerial reign of Manager George Peck, of the Gayety Theater, and as a testimonial benefit his many friends have arranged

AMUSEMENTS

YOUR LAST CHANCE

TODAY MONDAY REMAINDER

THE BELASCO

With the Fighting

Forces of Europe

KINEMACOLOR MASTER

MOTION PICTURES

ABLA DESCRIBED BY HR. J. MALCOLM BUAN

POSITIVELY LAST WEEK

3 and

2:30 OF WEEK

ONLY 2:30 & 8:30

aside in the cause of "sweet charity,"

COLUMBIA.

"Naughty Marietta" will be the medium of presenting the Columbia Musical Comedy Company, this week.

"Naughty Marietta" is rated as among the classics of light opera, and is rethe classics of light opera, and is regarded as Victor Herbert's beat work. The piece was written for Madame Emma Trentini, the famous Italian opera singer, who was discovered in Milan by Oscar Hammerstein, and introduced to America at the Manhattan Opera House. The stellar role is believed to offer a wonderful opportunity for Miss Eleanor Henry, the Columbia prima donna.

Carl Hayden is to sing the role of Capt. Richard Warrington; Harry Short, the comedienne, will be Silas Slick, Capt. Dick's servant, and Leonore Novasio will be Lisette, a Casquette girl; Lucile Saunders is to be Adah, a quadroon siava, and Dorothy Walker is the Fanchon, a Creole; W. J. McCarthy, Philip Sheffield, J. P. McSweeney, and David Andrada and others of the big castwill have roles suited to their personalities. The story of "Naughty Marietta" concerns the experiences of Countess Marietta, who runs away, and as a "casquette" girl is sent by the King of France to the French settlement of New Orleans. Upon her arrival she is befriended by an American frontierman, Cant. Richard Warrington, and falls in Orleans. Upon her arrival she is be-friended by an American frontierman. Capt. Richard Warrington, and falls in love with him. She also arouses the affections of the lieutenant governor's son. Etienne Grandet, a polished young villian, who is also known to the under-werld as the pirate "Bras Pique."

POLI'S.

Seven Keys to Baldpate," George M Cohan's dramatization of Earl Dorr Biggers' best seller, will be the offering of the Poli players this week.

This mystery farce tells the story of D. Hemmick, on the occasion of the young fiction writer who wagers $6,000 that he can write a popular novel 16,000 that he can write a popular novel in twenty-four hours. The scene chosen for the test is a summer hotel belonging to a friend, in the Adirondacks, and the time the dead of wineter, when the hotel is entirely deserted, thus assuring the author absolute quiet and freedom from interruption. He is also assured he has the only key to the place.

As the curtain rises on the second act the author is seen peering over the bannister into the gloom of the lobby below. He has heard someone entering the lodge and using a key to open the front door. Before this eventful night comes to a close seven people have entered this door, each one unlocking it with a key which is supposed to be the only one in existence, so far as each intruder believes. The climax of the play is one of the most novel things that the resourceful George M. Cohan has conceived.

movel things that the resourceful George M. Cohan has conceived.

Albert Roscoe will be seen as the novelist, and Maud Gilbert will appear in the attractive role of a newspaper reporter, who is tracking the city "boodlers."

B. F. KEITH'S.

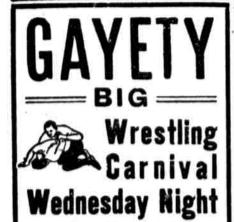

Mrs. Sherburne G. Hopkins, jr., of this city, better known as "Peggy" Hopkins, and the elaborate Spring performances will be given daily at $:30 Fashion Show of 1915, produced by May Tully for the B. F. Keith circuit of theaters, is the focus for extraordinary interest at the Kelth Theater here this week. The attraction is announced as one of the greatest novelties of the attraction is announced as Mrs. Hopkins appears as "Milady of the Avenue, wearing the latest modes for the midday meander, while twenty other "mannequins," previously conother "mannequins," previously connected with the leading Fifth avenue modistes and milliners, will appear in gowns worn by ladies of wealth and position from rising to retiring.

Of the early morn showings, that called "Eve Sets the Styles," by Betty Brown, is said to be an exquisite creation, while the other extreme is represented by "Milady of the Negligee."

Among the Fifth avenue fashion authorities taking part are J. M. Gidding oring. Among the Fifth avenue fashion anti-erities taking pert are J. M. Gidding & Co., Lucille, Redfern, Hickson, Jean, Miss Carroll, De Pinna, O'Bullivan, Jo-seph Nardi, Estelle, Mershon, Malson Maurice, Monte Sano & Verga, Malson Bernard, Harry Collins, François, Aber-Bernard, Harry Collins, Francois, Abercromble & Fitch, Bonwit, Teller & Co.,
George Bernard, I. Miller, I. M. Hirsch, and Follmer-Clogg Company.
The remainder of the bill includes
Willard, "The Man Who Grows:
Nellie V. Nichols, the comedienne; Mr.
and Mrs. Jimmie Barry, in "The and Mrs. Jimmie Barry, in "The Rube;" B. A. Rolfe's spectacle. "Co-lonial Days:" Joseph Hart's "A Tele-phone Tangle." featuring Helen Regal; Lightner and Jordan. "The Broadway and Kurtis' educated chante-

AMUSEMENTS

May 12, at 8:15 Benefit Tendered to Mgr. GEORGE PECK

Star Bout, Joe Turner vs. Frits Hanson. Pat O'Conner, referee

NAMON WELCH -- Polis -

D. Hemmick, on the occasion of the second performance at the Belascq Theater tomorrow night at 8:30 o'clock. With the exception of this addition, the presentation of the play will be the same as before.

An interpretation of the "Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam" and an Egyptian dance before the sphinx will be the two presentations of Swan, who was persuaded to come to Washington for one performance because of the extremely appropriate settings of "The Opium Pipe." tremely appropriate settings of "The Opium Pipe."

Paul Swan, although he received his training in Greece, is a typically American product, having studied art and sculpture with Lorado Tart in Chicago prior to his career as a dander. His start in this country was given him through the efforts of Alia Nasimova, the actress. The performance tomorrow night will be given for the benefit of the French ambulance motor fund.

BELASCO.

At 8:15.

The star bout of the evening will be between Joe Turner, the middleweight champion of the world, and Fritz Hanson is in the bost of condition, and is posting nis loving cup, which he won after it Turner's belt.

Turner's belt.

The star bout of the evening will be between Joe Turner, the middleweight champion of the world, and Fritz Hanson, the Sweedish champion. Hanson is in the bost of condition, and is posting nis loving cup, which he won after it Turner's belt.

The star bout of the evening will be between Joe Turner, the middleweight champion of the world, and Fritz Hanson, the Sweedish champion. Hanson is in the bost of condition, and is posting nis loving cup, which he won after it Turner's belt.

Turner's belt.

Turner's belt.

The star bout of the evening will be between Joe Turner, the middleweight champion of the world, and Fritz Hanson, the Sweedish champion. Hanson is in the bost of condition, and is posting nis loving cup, which he won after it Turner's belt.

The star bout of the evening will be set wently and the world, and Fritz Hanson, the Sweedish champion. Hanson is in the bost of condition, and is posting nis loving cup, which he won after it Turner's belt.

Turner's belt.

Turner's belt.

Solvent Hanson is in the bost of condition, and is posting nis loving cup, which he won after it he bost of condition, and is posting nis loving cup, which he won after it he bost of condition, and is posting nis loving cup, which he won after it he bost of condition, and is posting nis loving cup, which he will be seven in the bost of condition of the won and love the c

COSMOS.

"Arcadian Songland," the headline at traction to be presented at the Cosmos Theater this week by Fred G. Nixon-Nirdlinger is one of the choicest musical offerings of the highest class of vaudeville, and bears a strong resemblance to B. A. Ralph's. "The Arcadians." Requiring a company of fourteen people, the production is described as one of the most elaborate of its

The Flying Russells will apear in their part, making exhibition of midair feats. Sanka Oni, of the Hawaiian Islands, is billed to present melodies of his native land, the instrumentation of which, on the guitar, is said to have introduced a new method of playing the instrument in America. instrument in America. Harry Coleman will be one of the real novelties, because he is billed for singing ventriloquism. Lores and Allen have an offering of new songs and

AMUSEMENTS

PRICES Mats. Tues. & Thurs., All Seats 25c Mat. Sat., 25c and 50c

resenting Raymond Hitchcock's Most Prominent Success.

THE RED WIDOW

Week The Wan one Broadway DANCE PLAYS Complimentary to

American Federation of Arts Florence Fleming Noyes System. RHYTHMIC EXPRESSION

MRS. RICHARD MANSFIELD. New Willard Hotel May 17th, $ 30. Ticheis $1.00, T. Arthur Smith.

GARDEN.

At Moore's Garden Theater this week the program of photoplays greatly varied in character begins today with a double feature bill the principal attraction being "Winning the Futurity," in which Walter Miller the famous jockey which Walter Miller the famous jockey, has the leading role. "Winning the Futurity" breathes the atmosphere of the race track and presents a beautiful story of life and horses. The added attraction will be "Our Dare Devil Hero," a new Keystone comedy.
"Humpelstlinkin" described as a fair. A program of unusual merit has been selected by the management of Crandall's Theater for this week. Today the Pathe Company presents Ruth Rolland in the fourth of the "Who Pays" Reaping the Whirlwind." featuring "Jackle" Saunders will be shown. Wednesday a photoplay of the stories antilled "Doc" that appeared in the Rumpelstiltskin' described as a fairy series, "The Love Liar," as the main attraction. Manday and Tuesday the Saturday Evening Post, will be shown. headliner will be Mrs. Fiske's former hand be success, "The High Road," with week the program presents "Strathweek the program presents "t

Valli Valli in the role of Mary Page.

The feature on Wednesday will be a return engagement of "The Clemenceau Case," with Theda Bara in the principal role. Thursday and Friday a photoplay of Robert W. Service's poem, "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," with Edmund Breese, will be shown.

Saturday's program will show Charlie Chaplin in his latest Essanay comedy. Prof. Green's orchestra and Crandali's pipe organ concerts will be features at all performances.

MOORE'S STRAND.

Edwin Arden, who has many admirers in Washington by reason of his frequent appearances with local stock companies, will make his local screen debut in a photoplay of "The Eagle's Nest" at Moore's Strand Theater today, and will photoplay of "The Eagle's Nest" at Moore's Strand Theater today, and will all performances.

AMUSEMENTS

Gayety -

dances, and Prince and Deerie will furnish the contrast, as the collegian and the kid.

A special feature, beginning today, will be the story of the Cosmos score-board, flashed direct from the grounds, where the Nationals play their game away from home each day.

CRANDALL'S.

Valli Valli in the role of Mary Page.

AMUSEMENTS

THEATRE

MUSICAL COMEDY COMPANY 500 Seats at 25c 450 Seats at 50c 200 Seats at 75c

TWO MATINEES ONLY THURSDAY AND SATURDAY 1100 Seats at 25c. A Few at 50c. Sale Two Weeks in Advance,

In the Operetta Which Made MME, EMMA TREATINI Famous

Next Week - THE EMMA TREY- "THE FIRELY"

Book and Lyrie by RIDA JOHNSON VOLNG ORUHESTRA OF IS SINGING AND DANCING CHORUS OF 30.

Society" on the stage.

Robert Edeson, in "Man's Prerogative" will be seen the remainder of the week. Adapted from the novel of Frank E. Woods, the story deals with the everinteresting social triangle.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

George Cohan's musical success, "The Man Who Owns Broadway."

With a cast fully up to the standard set by the preceding productions, an attractive chorus, and the metropolitan setting, this characteristic Cohan show bids fair to be one of the "hits" of the organization's reported to the control of the constant of the cons bids fair to be one of the "hits" of the organization's repertoire. Full of comedy, dancing, and singing, with a score of Cohanesque numbers, "The Man Who Owns Broadway" provides a most refreshing evening's entertainment.

Prominent in the list of principals will be Robinson Newbold, Theodore Martin, Elson Riley, Inex Baur, William Pruett, Jr., Dixie Blair, Grace Pomeroy, Gus Buell, Georgette Armstrong, Thomas Young, Morgan Worth, and George White.

The Columbia Musical Comedy Company will next week present "The Fire Fly" another operated in which Mme. Emina Trentini scored a big success.

The music of "The Fire Fly" was responsible for "High Jinks," as well was success.

Mrs. Richard Mansfield and a company of the students of the Florence of the Fleming Noyes system of richard the students of the Fleming Noyes system of richard the Fleming Noyes system of the Fleming Noyes system of richard the Fleming Noyes system of the F

The Columbia Musical Comedy Company will next week present "The Fire Fly," another operatia in which Mme. Emina Trentini scored a big success. The music of "The Fire Fly" was composed by Rudolph Friml, who was responsible for "High Jinks," as well as for the latest New York success. "The Peasant Girl." The lyricg were by Otto Hauerbach, who exercised a similar function with "Mme. Sherry."

"The Fire Fly" represent a like school of musical expression, and will serve to show the Columbia favorites in an entirely new sphere of activity and interest. Eleanor Henry will have a role that will capitally suit her personality.

The Poil Players will be seen next week in Margaret Anglin's comedy success "Green Stockings." The play was written by A. E. W. Mason and the title is suggested by the fact that the heroine, Celia Faraday is the oldest of three sisters, and has been forced to week in Margaret Anglin's comedy success "Green Stockings." The play was written by A. E. W. Mason and the title is suggested by the fact that the heroine. Cella Faraday is the oldest of three sisters, and has been forced to wear green stockings, as a symbol of maidenhood.

Naval Expert to Tell

Cella is much pitied by her sisters and

At Moore's Garden Theater next week the leading attraction Sunday and Monday will be Harold Lockwood in a photoplay of Harold McGrath's story, "The Lure of the Mask," a Mutual Master Picture. In Lockwood's sup-port will be seen Irving Cummings, Elsie Jane Wilson and other Mutual

For the remainder of the week Mr. Next week's offering by the Aborns and Sidney Bracey in "Man's Witness," at the New National Theater will be deorge Cohan's musical success, "The distory, "At the Mercy of Tiberius."

In Poetic Dance Plays

Of Submarine Warfare

Celia is much pitied by her sisters and by her associates. She wearles of this patronizing attitude and invents a lover who she declares has sailed for Somaliland with a British restiment. In order to humor the joke she writes a letter to this supposed lover. The missive eventually falls into the hands of a colonel Smith, who, upon his return calls on Celia.

Nora Bayes will starline the keith Theater bill next week, and more of her own exclusive topical ditties and diamond-decked gowns will add fresh retruits to her army of admirers. Other attractions will be "The Bix Water Lillies from the New York Hippodrome aquatio spectacle; Kramer and anorton; Le Roy, Lytton and company; Meehan's Comic Canines; Johnny Dooley and Yvette Rugel; Leo Beers; the organ recitals, and the Pathe animated pictorial news.

Next week's program at Crandall's will begin on Sunday with the fifth of the "Who Pays" series produced by the Pathe Company, entitled "Unto Herself Alone." On Monday and Tuesday Annette Kellerman will be seen again in "Neptune's Daughter."

Wednesday and Thursday William Fox will present Nance O'Nell in "Princess Romanoff," a film adaptation of Sardou's "Fedora." Friday and Saturday the program will feature Charlie Chaplin in his latest Essanay comedy.

One of the officers of the United States Navy, who is an expert on submarine Lieute, Clarence N. Hinkamp, is to tell much of what he knows and illustrate the telling with pictures such as have never before been shown to the public in this city, at the benefit to be given next Sunday evening at the Honolulu.

The announcement of Lieutenant Hinkamp in the submarine F-4 at Honolulu.

The announcement of Lieutenant Hinkamp out the protein provide with them than any other officer of the navy.

At the present time, the officer of the navy.

At the present immediate because in sinking and raising them and the fighting possibilities of the oratic lieutenant Hinkamp will tell all this, and expects to show, in addition to a number of interesting lantern lidex, a series of m

AMUSEMENTS

AMUSEMENTS

"PEGGY" HOPKINS AS "MILADY OF THE AVENUE" AND WITH "PEGGY" HOPKINS AS "MILADY OF THE AVENUE" AND TWENTY HANDSOMEST MANNEQUINS, MIDINETTES, AND MODELS IN THE WORLD, PORTHAYING the DAZZLING SERIES, "WHAT MILADY WEARS—MORNING, NOON, EVENING, AND NIGHT," Including "EVE SETS THE STYLES" and "MILADY OF THE NEGLIGIES," Gowns by the World's Greatest Dictators of Styles for Women. Stage Setting of Surpassing Splendor, Framing Fashion's Masterpieces.

The Amssing and Pussling Physical Phenomenon,

NELLIE V. NICHOLS The "Nationality" Songatress.

No Other Man Like Him in Earth's Millions of Years, MR. and MRS. JIMMIE BARRY Funniest Ever in "The Rube,"

B. A. Rolfe's "Colonial Days." Jos. Hart's "A Telephone Tangle," Lightner & Jordan, Kurtis' Comic Chanteelers, Organ recitals. Pathe Weekly, TWICE NAZIMOVA, WELCH & Week's Hits

FANS" SPECIAL ELECTRICAL SCOREBOARD AT MATINEE TO-

MOST MAGNIFICENT PRODUCTION EVER STAGED IN THE WORLD CAST 300 ARENIC BEAUTIFU ARTISTS DANCING 108 GIRLS CAGE 400 ZOO 3 BIG AWONDERFUL ANDTRAIN ALL NEW LOAD OF NOVELTY PARADE CIRCUS

AT 10 O'CLOCK A. M. BIG NEW STREET PARADE One 50s ticket admits to All; unlidres under 12 yrs, half-price. 2 Performances at 2 & 8 P. M. Doors epenat 1 & 7 P. M.

Admission and Reserved Nest Sale Downtown both days at Ogram's Drug Stere. Bith and Pennsylvania ava. Prices the same as at Show Grounds.